Program Report:

The "Academic Prerequisites for Higher Studies Abroad, with Emphasis on GRE and TOEFL" training program, led by Dr. Yashoda, was conducted at Anwarul Uloom College of Business Management from December 10 to 13, 2019. This program proved to be a resounding success, providing participants with a comprehensive understanding of the academic requirements for pursuing higher education overseas.

Throughout the four days, participants engaged in rigorous sessions that covered GRE and TOEFL content, strategies, and application processes. Dr. Yashoda's expertise and interactive teaching methodologies facilitated a dynamic learning experience. The highlight of the program was the mock assessments on the final day. The subsequent review and individualized feedback sessions allowed participants to identify areas for improvement and fine-tune their approaches.

In conclusion, the "Academic Prerequisites for Higher Studies Abroad, with Emphasis on GRE and TOEFL" program by Dr. Yashoda was instrumental in equipping participants with the tools needed for success in their academic pursuits abroad. The participants' feedback highlighted the program's impact on their preparedness for the GRE and TOEFL exams, along with their confidence in navigating the international admission processes. The program undoubtedly played a pivotal role in paving the way for their journey towards higher education excellence on a global platform.

Introduction:

Overseas education has become increasingly popular among students as it provides them with exposure to a global environment and enhances their career prospects. To guide students on the process of pursuing overseas education and its impact on career prospects, Mr. Mohammed Ibrahimuddin, an Associate Professor at Anwarul Uloom College of Business Management, conducted a session on "Overseas Education and Career Prospects" on 11th March 2020.

Program Report:

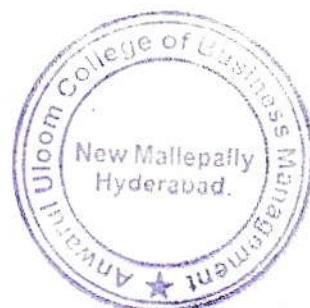

The session was attended by approximately 200 students from different courses and semesters. Mr. Ibrahimuddin started the session by explaining the benefits of pursuing overseas education, such as exposure to a global environment, better career prospects, and personal growth. He also discussed the different types of overseas education options, such as undergraduate, postgraduate, and research programs.

During the session, Mr. Ibrahimuddin provided students with practical information on how to pursue overseas education, such as selecting the right course, choosing the right university, admission requirements, scholarships, and visas. Moreover, he highlighted the importance of researching and understanding the country's culture, language, and employment opportunities before choosing a destination.

The session also focused on the career prospects of students after completing their overseas education. Mr. Ibrahimuddin emphasized that students with overseas education have a competitive advantage in the job market as they possess a global mindset and cross-cultural communication skills. He also discussed the potential industries and job roles that are in high demand for students with overseas education.

Program Outcome:

The session helped students to understand the benefits of pursuing overseas education and provided them with practical information on how to do so. The students learned about different types of overseas education options, admission requirements, scholarships, and visas. Additionally, the session helped students develop a research-oriented mindset and encouraged them to explore different destination options before selecting one. The students also gained insights into the potential industries and job roles that are in high demand for students with overseas education.
